

The Universe is so big that it is difficult to imagine. These pictures try to help by comparing the sizes of things that you know about with the sizes of the planets and the stars.

- Cut out the pictures.
- Sort them out into order of size, starting with the smallest.
- Stick them into your book in order, like this

I can...

- compare pictures to show the different sizes of objects in the Universe.

